

Trevor Leatzow

Talent Solutions Specialist

Trevor Leatzow is a Talent Specialist for the Detroit Regional Partnership (DRP). In this role, Leatzow collaborates with the Director of Talent Solutions to develop talent solutions programming that provides comprehensive regional workforce data, customized planning, partner connections and other talent concierge services to prospective companies looking to locate or expand in the Detroit Region. He also assists with the development of regional talent and workforce solutions databases, the crafting of talent plans for prospective businesses, and the successful delivery of talent solutions services.

Leatzow previously worked as program administrator at the Workforce Intelligence Network, and as communications specialist for the National Center for School Safety. He holds bachelor's degrees in English and political theory and constitutional democracy, and is currently pursuing a master's of public policy from the University of Michigan Ford School.