Alan M. Weber, EdD

Vice President, Global Investment and Trade

Alan M. Weber is Vice President of Global Investment and Trade at the Detroit Regional Partnership (DRP). Weber is responsible for the day-to-day management and execution of the DRP's international economic development strategy. Drawing on his extensive experience in developing international business attraction programming, specifically for European and Asian markets, Weber travels globally to attract investment to the 11-county Detroit Region as well as promote investment opportunities to international organizations.

Prior to joining the DRP, Weber held several similar positions in Michigan including economic development director for the city of Novi and senior manager of international business development for Oakland County's Economic Development Corporation. He has a doctorate and bachelor's degree from Oakland University and a Master of Public Administration from the University of Michigan-Flint.
