Joseph Horal

Administrative Assistant, Build Back Better Regional Challenge

Joseph Horal is Administrative Assistant for the Detroit Regional Partnership's (DRP) Build Back Better Regional Challenge (BBBRC) grant through the U.S. Economic Development Administration. In this role, Horal is responsible for all high-level administrative support as the DRP leads its regional coalition partners in their competitive proposal to create a world-class advanced mobility industry cluster.

Horal has over five years of experience as an executive assistant in the hospitality, food and beverage, and automotive industries. He has provided direct support to multiple C-suite level executives across the world. Horal is highly skilled at building and maintaining business relationships through professionalism, accountability, and organization.

Horal has completed coursework in public relations at Central Michigan University and is currently pursuing his Certification as an Associate in Project Management (CAPM)
