

Rajiea Sultana

Talent Solutions Coordinator

Rajiea Sultana is Talent Solutions Coordinator for the Detroit Regional Partnership (DRP), a leading economic development nonprofit which serves as the single point of contact for domestic and international companies looking to locate or expand the 11-county Detroit Region.

In this role, she is responsible for identifying and developing talent solutions for companies coming into Southeast Michigan. Sultana maintains a talent database, works closely with different public and private sector organizations, and leverages new and existing programs to meet employer needs to ensure that businesses can field the workforce they need to thrive.

Prior to joining the DRP, Sultana has applied her knowledge and project management skills in the corporate setting in curriculum development for Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan and as a research and consulting associate for Magnet Consulting, which specializes in organizational culture and team development. She also completed her master's degree in industrial and organizational psychology from Wayne State University.
