Joseph Horal

Office Services and Events Coordinator

Joseph Horal is Office Services and Events Coordinator for the Detroit Regional Partnership (DRP), a leading economic development nonprofit organization working to attract national and international businesses to the 11-county Detroit Region. In this role, Horal supports DRP's mission by delivering the highest quality service and assistance to internal and external customers. He supports the organization's overall efficiency and effectiveness through event coordination, including the DRP's annual meeting for investors. Horal also maintains a well-organized and welcoming office environment and oversees the Culture Committee.

Horal has over five years of experience as an executive assistant in the hospitality, food and beverage, and automotive industries. He has provided direct support to multiple C-suite level executives across the world. Horal is highly skilled at building and maintaining business relationships through professionalism, accountability, and organization. Horal has completed coursework in public relations at Central Michigan University and is currently pursuing his Certification in Associate Professional in Human Resources (aPHR).
