

Marisa Kuhn

Associate Manager of Business Development

Marisa Kuhn is Associate Manager of Business Development for the Detroit Regional Partnership (DRP), a leading economic development nonprofit serving the 11-county Detroit Region. As a member of the business development team, Kuhn specializes in international delegations and coordinates site tours, delegation visits and other events for companies to explore the Region for investment and expansion opportunities.

With over a decade of experience, Kuhn has developed an expertise in international business operations that is essential to hosting prospective investors and ensuring they have a productive and seamless experience traveling to and around the Detroit Region. Prior to joining the DRP, Kuhn held various professional positions for dormakaba Americas, the Art Institute of Michigan, and Park Motor Sales, and attended Butler University.

PAST EXPERIENCE AND EDUCATION

- Project Manager, dormakaba Americas
- Logistics Coordinator, Agrident B.V.
- Assistant Director of Admissions, Art Institute of Michigan
- Business Development Manager, Park Motor Sales